Description

this is our replica franco albini desk. franco albini's 1958 floating pedestal desk combines glass, chrome-plated steel and painted wood into a piece of striking clarity and balance. the desk's design demonstrates albini's commitment to rigorous craftsmanship and elegance built on a minimalist aesthetic, unencumbered by extraneous ornamentation. as one of the first europeans commissioned to create furniture for franco albini is often considered the most important of the italian "neo-rationalist" designers. his work signaled a wave of furniture design that successfully combines the new forms of modernism with a more traditional artisanship.

our reproduction of this classic desk is available with either walnut or white lacquer drawers on a square tube chromed steel frame and 12mm clear tempered glass top. drawers can be attached either on the left or right.
